ABOUT TUANNI PRICE, PRESIDENT ZURI WINE TASTING

Tuanni Price is on a mission to make the complicated world of wine simple. In fact, that is the motto of her wine lifestyle business, Zuri Wine Tasting. The self-proclaimed wine enthusiast curates' wine-filled lifestyles from Southern California to the Southern-most part of the globe in Cape Town, South Africa.

Tuanni uses her brand, Zuri Wine Tasting, to host private tastings, teach wine tasting classes and host wine tours. In addition, she produces small to large scale wine experiences for corporate and non-profit clients.

Tuanni has traveled the world sipping and learning about wine. Tuanni made a bold move in 2018 to expand her business to Capetown South Africa, spending part of each year contributing to the vibrant exciting industry there. Zuri Wine Tasting offers its services to clients and wine lovers in both the US and South Africa.

Today, aside from managing the day-to-day operations and event planning on behalf of Zuri Wine Tasting, Tuanni also host a podcast, aBroad Drinking Wine. She volunteers for PYDA (Pinotage Youth Development Academy), Blacc Cellar Club in Stellenbosch and the US-based AAV (African American Vintners Association). She holds a B.A. in Liberal Arts from Grambling University.

2. Is transportation from and back to the airport included

- a. We have a shuttle once on Sundays to the Airport and from the airport. 3pm pickup and drop off.

3. Do you offer travelers insurance

- a. Inbound Travel insurance is included. Cover medical and passport replacement services.

4. Are you a licensed and bonded travel agent/professional

- a. We partner with Travel Agents and you can book directly through them should you feel more comfortable. They charge a small processing fee.

5. What general liability insurance do you carry as a business owner

- a. We only have inbound travel insurance via Holland Travel <https://www.hollardti.com/> All supporting documents can be provided at the time of your confirmation and payment.
- b. All our drivers have comprehensive public liability insurance and transport charter license

6. What happens if you're unable to accompany the group on the tour

- a. Tuanni does not accompany all tours as they happen year round. We have a well trained staff of professional who accompany Tuanni's absence. Bio and pictures are provided at the time of booking. Please note that we use local people and pay wages that are comparable to U.S.

7. What is the refund policy

- a. The initial deposit of $200 is non refundable however, it may be transferred to a different trip date. Refunds for the balance paid less refunds are given upon written request 45 days before trip. Cancellations made after that are not refunded. Refunds may take 7-10 business days due to credit card processing.

8. Are you a 3rd party booking tours and trips through another travel business entity

- a. No

9. What forms of payment do you accept

- a. For your protection and ours we prefer major credit cards, however we accept debit cards too. No cash, no checks nor money sites/app such as paypal, square or Cashapp.

10. Will the activities and accommodations be in my name or your name

- a. We book reservations in names of guest.(Wine tasting is an exception).

11. Will I be able to call direct to confirm my hotel/room accommodations

- a. Yes you can 60 days before trip or when your trip is more than 50% paid. Whichever happens first.

12. Will I receive email confirmations on all of my reservations for activities

- a. You will receive an email confirmation from ZWT that list phone numbers and confirmation numbers.

13. What is your business address

- a. Please see W-9 attached

14. Is your business incorporated? If so what's the official business name you pay taxes under?

- a. No, we are an LLC. Please see attached W-9

15. If I choose to make monthly payments, how does that process work?

- a. We can customize a payment plan that best fits your needs. We set you up on a monthly invoice plan for $200 to $1,000 per month. The balance is due 30 days before the trip.

16. What's the maximum number of people on a wine tour vacation, in case I'd like to gather friends to make this a group vacation.

- a. We pride ourselves in small group tours. Our public group is limited to 12. A group of friends or family we can handle up to 50 at one time. The minimum is 2.

17. About how much cash should we bring?

- a. This depends on what you like to do when you travel. If you can avoid Mall shopping and spend on wine, food and souvenirs $75 a day would work. After your accommodations, transportation and most food are covered in tour price

18. Should we exchange in SA or before we get there?

- a. I suggest yes. You can easily order currency from you U.S. bank. If you forget or do not have time, I can help you upon arrival. DO NOT exchange at the airport!

19. Is there western attire or styles that are frowned upon in SA?

- a. Not at all! Cape Town is very liberal in terms of religion and social norms. It is a fashion forward city... dress cute! (avoid heels, it's a sandal and tennis shoe vibe)

20. What vaccinations do you suggest and/or are required?

- a. Your doctor can look up the most recent data on this. Usually your normal vaccinations are fine. For example I just had to catch up on a TB test and Tdap
- b. Here is a list of recommended vaccinations: hepatitis A, hepatitis B, typhoid, yellow fever, rabies, meningitis, polio, measles, mumps and rubella (MMR), Tdap (tetanus, diphtheria and pertussis), chickenpox, shingles, pneumonia and influenza.

21. Is a visa required to enter SA?

- a. Upon entry into South Africa Americans are automatically granted a 90 day visa. No additional paperwork is needed. Your passport must be up to date and have at least 6 unstamped pages.

22. Are there limits to the type of medication you can bring into SA?

- a. Yes personal medication only, provided it is for not more than three (3) months' use. This must be accompanied by a prescription issued by a medical doctor

23. What's the primary religion in SA? Asking only to know if there's religious instability impacting their government

- a. Mostly Christians. However, Cape Town is a true melting pot with various religions, races and languages.

24. What is the political climate in SA and its relations with the US?

- a. The first questions Captonian's will as you is "how's Donald Trump" I think they take comfort in comparing their past president to ours.
- b. The people in Cape Town LOVE American culture and welcome us with hugs and unrivaled hospitality. I often hear welcome home cousin!
